Take Hwy 101 North to Cloverdale.

Exit off Hwy 101 at the last Cloverdale exit; you'll see a sign for Hwy 128.

Follow Hwy 128 to Navarro (be sure to mind the speed limit, especially through the towns)

Approximate 1.5 miles after you go through Navarro is the turn-off to the right for Camp Masonite-Navarro. This turn-off is the first paved road just after a cement bridge. If you look closely, you'll see a sign on the right stating that the camp turn-off is in  $\frac{1}{4}$ - mile.

Follow the turn-off road in about a mile; the entry to the camp is on the right and you'll see a sign.

If you go straight at this point, you'll be on someone else's property
